

MMAS 2020 - 2021 SEASON

Thank you in advance for your support of our next season at MMAS. We have modified our season to provide quality theater during these difficult times. Our performances this season will each have a three performance run with a limited in-house audience. Live streaming will be available for each performance until we are back at full capacity seating.

This list reflects our shows through the end of 2020. We may need to modify the second half of our season pending changes in COVID-19 safety practices and will announce the remainder of the season at a later date. Online ticketing is available for streaming tickets only at this time.

Libby Kafka 1923 - 2020

We would like to dedicate this season to our longest serving volunteer. Libby was a fixture at MMAS. Known as "grandma" to many of our actors, she volunteered at 1406 performances.

COVID-19 SAFE: We are working hard to keep patrons and performers safe. Our spaces are cleaned daily in accordance with recommended guidelines for dance and theater spaces.

In-House Audience: We do plan to offer limited seating when possible. Check our website for details. Due to social distancing guidelines our house maximum will be 16 people per performance. Please plan accordingly and purchase tickets in advance if you plan to attend in person. Regular ticket prices apply. Please wear a mask and plan to be seated socially distanced.

NEW! Live-Streaming: All of our performances will be made available through live-streaming. When you live stream you'll be watching a LIVE show being performed in an MMAS venue. Purchased live stream links are unique and cannot be shared with others. Visit our website for details.
